

Article 1. Preliminary

This contract is governed by the policy schedule and general conditions issued by Demo Insurance. The documentation is synthetic and is used for a customer service prototype.

This article must be interpreted together with the policy schedule and issued annexes.

Support phones and deadlines are listed in the claims procedure for the line.

Article 2. Definitions

Policyholder, insured, beneficiary, premium, claim, copay, deductible and waiting period have the meanings described in these conditions.

This article must be interpreted together with the policy schedule and issued annexes.

Support phones and deadlines are listed in the claims procedure for the line.

Article 3. Purpose of the insurance

The Funeral insurance covers the risks expressly included for each contracted plan.

This article must be interpreted together with the policy schedule and issued annexes.

Support phones and deadlines are listed in the claims procedure for the line.

Article 4. Coverage by plan

The available plans are: Funeral Family, Funeral Plus. Each one has specific limits and exclusions.

This article must be interpreted together with the policy schedule and issued annexes.

Plan	Scope	Notes
Funeral Family	Coverage according to the benefits table	Check current limits and sublimits
Funeral Plus	Coverage according to the benefits table	Check current limits and sublimits

Support phones and deadlines are listed in the claims procedure for the line.

Article 5. General exclusions

Intentional acts, claims before the effective date and damage not supported by documentation are excluded.

This article must be interpreted together with the policy schedule and issued annexes.

Support phones and deadlines are listed in the claims procedure for the line.

Article 6. Waiting periods

Waiting periods start on the effective date shown in the policy schedule.

This article must be interpreted together with the policy schedule and issued annexes.

Support phones and deadlines are listed in the claims procedure for the line.

Article 7. Claims

The policyholder must report the claim within 7 days after becoming aware of it and provide supporting documentation.

This article must be interpreted together with the policy schedule and issued annexes.

Support phones and deadlines are listed in the claims procedure for the line.

Article 8. Premium payment

The premium will be paid by direct debit or another accepted method. Non-payment may suspend coverage.

This article must be interpreted together with the policy schedule and issued annexes.

Support phones and deadlines are listed in the claims procedure for the line.

Article 9. Term and renewal

The standard term is annual with automatic renewal unless objection is notified on time.

This article must be interpreted together with the policy schedule and issued annexes.

Support phones and deadlines are listed in the claims procedure for the line.

Article 10. Complaints

Complaints may be submitted to Customer Service in writing or through the enabled channels.

This article must be interpreted together with the policy schedule and issued annexes.

Support phones and deadlines are listed in the claims procedure for the line.

Article 11. Data protection

Data is processed fictitiously for the prototype. No real data or real brands are used.

This article must be interpreted together with the policy schedule and issued annexes.

Support phones and deadlines are listed in the claims procedure for the line.